

Second International Research Conference for Graduate Students

November 3-4, 2010

Texas State University-San Marcos

Join graduate students from Texas State, as well as universities across the nation and around the world, in making presentations from a variety of fields at a conference sponsored by the Graduate College.

- Students will present their original research and receive feedback on their presentations from experienced faculty members.
- Master's and doctoral students from all disciplines are encouraged to participate.

The conference will take place on the beautiful Texas State University campus, located between Austin and San Antonio.

The conference is free and open to all graduate students currently enrolled in colleges and universities.
