

AEJMC MIDWINTER CONFERENCE

March 4-5, 2011

International Communication Division

Call for Paper Abstracts and Panel Proposals

The AEJMC Midwinter Conference is scheduled for March 4-5, 2011 at the Gaylord College of Journalism and Mass Communication (University of Oklahoma) in Norman, Oklahoma.

Paper Abstract submissions: Authors are invited to submit research paper abstracts of between 600 and 800 words excluding author information and references. In the abstract, please, give a clear sense of relevant literature, research objectives, methodological approach, findings and conclusions. The division welcomes papers that clearly deal with international aspects of mass communication. Any theoretical and methodological approaches appropriate to international communication research are acceptable and encouraged.

Panel submissions: Authors are invited to submit panel proposals as well. Panel submissions should include the panel title, a description of the session's focus, the issues to be discussed, and a list of panelists (potential and confirmed), including affiliation. Panel proposals should not exceed two double-spaced pages.

All Submissions should be made by e-mail to the research chair, Heloiza G. Herscovitz, at California State University Long Beach (heloiza@journalism.com). Please, do not submit full papers.

Submission format: All submissions (for paper abstracts and panels) should include the name(s) of the author(s) or panels organizer(s) on the title page only. The title page should also include the corresponding author's mailing address, telephone number and e-mail address. The title should be on the first page of the text and on running heads on each page of text. Authors should e-mail their abstracts or proposals as attachments (saved with the author's last name as file name) in a standard word-processing format (preferably Word or RTF) to the relevant midwinter chair. Authors must ensure that they remove any identifying information from their document (with the exception of the title page).

Deadline: December 3, 2010 by noon.
