

AEJMC

Visual Communication Division

Association for Education in Journalism and Mass Communication
Annual Convention, Washington D.C. August 9 to 12, 2007

The Visual Communication Division of AEJMC invites faculty and students to submit competitive papers devoted to theoretically based studies of visual communication and to issues concerning the professional practice of visual media production for presentation at the association's annual convention. Visual is broadly defined and includes photography, film, television, web design, graphic design, illustration, and digital imaging, as well as other visual phenomena.

The division encourages submission of papers that address a broad spectrum of methodology and application on all types of visual media--advertising, broadcast, digital imaging, film, graphic design, multimedia and web design, photojournalism, propaganda images, visual images and culture, visual literacy, and visual aspects of political campaigns, etc. Both qualitative and quantitative research in media history, law, policy, effects, processes, uses and ethics are also welcome.

All submissions will be blind refereed by a panel of independent readers. A $100 award will be given to the top student contribution and the top three faculty papers will be recognized in the AEJMC Annual Convention Program.

Papers are accepted for peer review on the understanding that they are not already under review for other conventions and that they have been submitted to only one AEJMC group for evaluation. Papers accepted for the AEJMC Convention should not have been presented to another convention or published in scholarly or trade journals prior to presentation at the convention.

Please contact Michelle Seelig (305.284.5211 or mseelig@miami.edu) with questions about the Visual Communication Division paper competition.
